CHAPTER I • Membership

Section 10. CLASSIFICATION:

The classes of membership of this Association shall be:

- A. Active
- B. Life
- C. Honorary
- D. Associate
- E. Affiliate
- F. Student
- G. Retired

Section 20. QUALIFICATIONS:

- A. Active Member: A person who meets one of the following requirements may apply for active membership in the Tennessee Dental Association. The application must be submitted through a component society as prescribed in Chapter II, Section 30 of these Bylaws.
  - 1. A dentist licensed to practice in Tennessee.
  - 2. A dentist who is a full-time educator in a school accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association, residing in Tennessee, who is a member in good standing in the American Dental Association.
  - 3. A dentist who is a member of the Federal Dental Service and a fully privileged member of the American Dental Association.
  - 4. A fully privileged ADA member dentist who practices or resides in a state contiguous to Tennessee, in close proximity to the Tennessee border, with permission of the local dental society and state dental association in the state in which that dentist practices or resides.
- B. Life Member: A member in good standing who has been an active and/or retired member in good standing for thirty (30) consecutive years or a total of forty (40) years of active membership shall be eligible to be classified as a life member of this Association. Life membership shall be effective the calendar year following the year in which the requirements are fulfilled. Maintenance of membership in good standing in this Association, in the American Dental Association and in a component society shall be a requisite for life membership in this Association. The American Dental Association will give notification to members who are eligible for life membership. A dentist who was an active member, but subsequently became a student member, shall be entitled to have the year or years of such subsequent membership counted for the sole purpose of establishing possible later eligibility for life membership.
  - 1) Active Life Membership: A member who satisfies the qualifications for Active Life Member in Section 20.A of this chapter and satisfies the qualifications for Life Member given in Section 20.B of this chapter shall be considered an Active Life Member.

- 2) Retired Life Membership: A member who satisfies the qualifications for Retired Member as found in Section 20.G of this chapter and satisfies the qualifications for Life Member given in Section 20.B of this chapter shall be considered a Retired Life Member. To qualify for retired life membership status, the member shall submit an affidavit attesting to the member's qualifications for retired life membership through his component society and said component society shall submit certificates verifying such qualifications.
- C. Honorary Member: An individual who has made outstanding contributions to the advancement of the art and science of dentistry, or who has rendered important service to the profession or to the Association. who has been nominated by the Board of Trustees and elected by the House of Delegates, shall be classified as an honorary member of this Association.
- D. Associate Member: A person not eligible for any other type of membership in this Association, who contributes to the advancement of the objectives of this Association and has not met the educational requirements for licensure as a dentist anywhere in the United States, may be classified as an associate member. Proposals for associate membership shall be presented by a component society to the Board of Trustees. If nominated by the Board of Trustees and elected by the House of Delegates an individual shall be classified as an associate member of this Association for a period of three (3) years.
- E. Affiliate Member: A person not eligible for Active, Life, Student, or Retired membership in this Association, but is a member of a health-related organization. Affiliate membership will be granted automatically upon subscription to certain Association products and/or services.
- F. Student Member:
1. A predoctoral student of a dental school accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation and located in the State of Tennessee, and who is an ASDA member, will automatically be a student member of the Tennessee Dental Association.
  2. A dentist who is engaged in a full-time post-doctoral program of not less than one (1) academic year in a CODA accredited education facility located in the State of Tennessee, may make direct application to the ADA. Upon enrollment in the ADA, the dentist will automatically be a graduate student member of the Tennessee Dental Association.
- G. Retired Member: An active member in good standing who is now a retired member of his component society and no longer earning income from the performance of service as a member of the faculty of a dental school, as a dental administrator or consultant, or as a practitioner of any activity for which a license to practice dentistry or dental hygiene is required by the State, may be classified as a retired member upon application to the Board of Trustees and upon proof of qualification. To qualify for retired membership status, the active member shall submit an affidavit attesting to his retirement through his component society, and his component society shall submit certificates verifying such retirement. Maintenance of active or retired membership in good standing in the member's component society entitling such member to all the privileges of an active member, shall be requisite for entitlement to and continuance of retired membership in this Association.

Section 30. IN GOOD STANDING:

A member of this Association is in good standing within the meaning of these Bylaws:

1. If his dues and assessments for the current calendar year have been paid, or if he has been exempted from payments as provided in these Bylaws; and
2. If he is not under final sentence of suspension or expulsion from this Association, from his component society, or from the American Dental Association.

Section 40. PRIVILEGES:

- A. Active Member: Active members in good standing shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of membership, including the right to vote, to hold office, to attend any scientific session of this Association and shall be entitled to such other services as are provided by the Association. An active member may receive the Journal of Tennessee Dental Association, the subscription of which shall be included in the annual dues.
- B. Life Member: A life member in good standing shall have all other privileges of active membership, except a life member who no longer pays dues to this Association, shall not receive the Journal of this Association except by regular subscription.
- C. Honorary Member: An honorary member shall enjoy all the privileges of active membership except the right to vote or hold elective office.
- D. Associate Member: An associate member shall have the privilege of attending all scientific sessions of the Association, but shall have no vote nor shall he be eligible to hold office in the Association. If appointed by the Board of Trustees, an associate member may serve on a committee in an advisory capacity. Associate members shall be subject to all regulations of the Constitution and Bylaws of this Association and may receive the Journal of the Association.
- E. Affiliate Member: An affiliate member shall have the privilege of attending all scientific sessions of the Association, but shall have no vote nor be eligible to hold any office in the Association.
- F. Student Member: A student member, in good standing, shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of membership except the right to vote and hold elective office, and he may receive the Journal of this Association.
- G. Retired Member: A retired member shall be entitled to all the privileges of an active member.
- H. Right of Hearing: A member who is charged (1) with having been found guilty of a felony; or (2) with having been found guilty of violating the Dental Practice Act of this state; or (3) with violating the Principles of Ethics of this Association, or of the American Dental Association or those of the component society of which he is a member; or (4) with violating the Constitution and Bylaws of this Association or those of the component society of which he is a member; or (5) with failure to abide by a final decision of the Peer Review Committee, shall have the right of a hearing before the Judicial Committee or similar body of his component society charged with enforcing professional ethics. The person so charged shall be given in writing a list of the specific charges made against him and a written notice of the time and place of the hearing at least ten (10) days prior to said hearing. The hearing shall be conducted in an impartial manner, giving to interested - parties full opportunity to present all relevant and material evidence and testimony. A written record of said hearing shall be recorded by the secretary of the component society, or by a person designated by him, and made available to the accused member.

- I. Right of Appeal: An accused member shall have the right of appeal from the decision of his component society, first, to the Committee on State Agencies, Awards, Ethics and Judicial Affairs and, next, to the Board of Trustees of this Association by filing an appeal in affidavit form with the Secretary of this Association. The Committee on State Agencies, Awards, Ethics and Judicial Affairs or the Board of Trustees or a committee of said Board of at least three members, shall hear the appeal in the manner prescribed in Chapter I, Section 40., Paragraph H of these Bylaws. An accused member shall have the further right of appeal described in Chapter XI of the Bylaws of the American Dental Association. An appeal from any decision shall not be valid unless filed within ninety (90) days after the decision, from which the appeal is taken, has been rendered. The notice of appeal shall contain the several grounds upon which the accused member relies in support of a reversal of the decision of his component society. No decision shall become final while an appeal therefrom is pending.
- J. Penalties: The authority conducting the original hearing, on a finding that the charges made against the accused member are sustained by the preponderant weight of the evidence, may, subject to an appeal to a higher authority, censure, place on probation, suspend, or expel from membership the accused person.

CHAPTER II • Component Societies

Section 10. ORGANIZATIONS:

- A. The Association shall be composed of nine (9) component societies, each to have jurisdiction within one of the areas herein described; and the Secretary of this Association is authorized to issue a charter, in a form approved by the House of Delegates, to each such society, denoting its name and territorial jurisdiction. The Societies chartered as component societies of this Association — their names and their territorial jurisdiction are the counties of:
- First District:* Carter, Greene, Hawkins, Johnson, Sullivan, Unicoi and Washington.
- Second District:* Anderson, Blount, Campbell, Claiborne, Cocke, Cumberland, Grainger, Hamblen, Hancock, Jefferson, Knox, Loudon, Monroe, Morgan, Roane, Scott, Sevier and Union.
- Chattanooga Area Dental Society:* Bledsoe, Bradley, Grundy, Hamilton, Marion, Meigs, McMinn, Polk, Rhea, Sequatchie and Van Buren.
- (These three districts to be known as the East Grand Division)*
- Fourth District:* Bedford, Cannon, Clay, Coffee, DeKalb, Fentress, Franklin, Jackson, Moore, Overton, Pickett, Putnam, Rutherford, Warren and White.
- Nashville Dental Society:* Davidson, Macon, Smith, Sumner, Trousdale, Wilson and Williamson.
- Sixth District:* Giles, Lawrence, Lewis, Lincoln, Marshall, Maury, Perry and Wayne;
- Eighth District:* Cheatham, Dickson, Hickman, Houston, Humphreys, Montgomery, Robertson and Stewart.

(These four latter districts to be known as the Middle Grand Division)

Seventh District: Benton, Carroll, Chester, Crockett, Decatur, Dyer, Gibson, Hardeman, Hardin, Haywood, Henderson, Henry, Lake, Lauderdale, Madison, McNairy, Obion, Tipton and Weakley.

Memphis Dental Society: Fayette and Shelby.

(These last two districts to be known as the West Grand Division)

- B. Each component society shall, subject to the approval of the Board of Trustees of this Association, take to itself a name by which the society shall be known.

Section 20. POWER AND DUTIES:

- A. A component society shall have the power to elect its members, who shall thereby become members of the Tennessee Dental Association and the American Dental Association, within the limits proposed by Section 30 of this chapter.
- B. It shall have the power to organize its members into subcomponent societies.
- C. It shall have the power to provide for its financial support and to make laws, rules and regulations, to adopt principles of ethics for its government — provided, however, that such enactments shall not conflict with the Constitution or Bylaws and Principles of Ethics of this Association or those of the American Dental Association.
- D. It shall have the power to discipline its members who have been found guilty of committing any of the acts prohibited in Chapter I, Section 40., Paragraph H of these Bylaws, by imposing any of the penalties enumerated in Chapter I, Section 40., Paragraph J of these Bylaws, subject to the right of hearing an appeal contained therein.
- E. It shall be the duty of a component society to conduct hearings on a member against whom charges have been preferred in accordance with these Bylaws.

Section 30. MEMBERSHIP:

- A. The fully privileged membership of each component society shall be composed of dentists elected by said component society. Applications for membership can be submitted by persons as prescribed in Chapter I, Section 20., of these Bylaws. Applications for membership will be made through the component society within which a dentist practices and/or resides.
- B. To reinstate a membership that has lapsed for more than one year, the component society shall require a new application for membership and forward it to the Tennessee Dental Association. The current year's dues will be collected by the Tennessee Dental Association.
- C. An active member who has suffered a significant financial hardship that prohibits them from payment of the full dues and/or any special assessment may be excused from the payment of fifty percent (50%) or all of the current year's ADA, TDA and component society dues and /or any special assessment as determined by their constituent and component dental societies. The component society shall certify the reason for the waiver, and forward to the TDA Board of Trustees for consideration and action. The ADA, the TDA and the component society shall provide the same proportionate reduction in any approved waivers. See Chapter IX, Section 10, Paragraph J.

- D. A dentist residing near a boundary line separating two component societies may, with the permission of the society in whose jurisdiction he practices, hold membership in the component society in which it is most convenient for him to participate.
- E. If a member in good standing of this Association moves their practice from the jurisdiction of one component society to another, the TDA shall transfer membership to the new component and notify the secretary of the component to which the member has moved.

Section 40. REPRESENTATION:

- A. Trustee: Each component society shall have the privilege of representation on the Board of Trustees of this Association by one fully privileged member who shall be elected by the component society as prescribed in Chapter IV, Sections 20., 30. and 40. of these Bylaws. The Trustee shall not be a voting member of the House of Delegates.
- B. Delegate: Each component society shall be entitled to at least one (1) delegate in the House of Delegates without regard to the number of its members. The remaining number of delegates in the House of Delegates shall be allocated to component societies proportionately to their number of active members in accordance with the formula in Chapter III, Section 20., of these Bylaws. Each component society shall elect its delegates and each delegate so elected must be an active member of the component society so electing him as prescribed in Chapter III, Section 30., of these Bylaws. Each component society shall elect from among its active, life and retired members an adequate number of alternate delegates. In the absence of the delegate, an alternate delegate shall serve as delegate with full authority. Neither the delegate nor alternate delegate shall be a voting member of the Board of Trustees.

Section 50. OFFICERS:

- A. The elective officers of a component society shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer (the offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be combined) and such others as may be prescribed in its Constitution and Bylaws. The Society shall elect its officers each year.
- B. It shall be the duty of the secretary of each component society to submit a report to the Secretary of this Association. This report shall be submitted annually, no later than sixty (60) days prior to the TDA annual session. This report shall include a summary of the activities of the component society for the preceding year; a list of members in good standing; and a list of elected delegates, alternate delegates, trustee and elected officers.

Section 60. BUSINESS SESSION:

A component society shall hold a business session at least once each calendar year.

Section 80. CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS:

Each component society shall adopt and maintain a constitution and set of bylaws which shall not be in conflict with the Constitution and Bylaws of this Association or those of the American Dental Association. The secretary of the component society shall file with the Secretary of the Association a copy of the constitution and of the bylaws and copies of any changes made from time to time in such instruments.

CHAPTER III • House of Delegates

Section 10. COMPOSITION:

- A. The House of Delegates shall be composed of 68 officially certified delegates representing all component societies. The elective officers, the voting members of the Board of Trustees, the past-presidents, and the Editor of the Journal of this Association, if applicable, shall be members ex-officio of the House of Delegates, with full privileges of the floor, except the right to vote.
- B. The House of Delegates shall also consist of one student member and one student alternate from each of the dental colleges located within the State of Tennessee and accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association. The student delegate and his alternate shall be nominated and elected by the American Student Dental Association members of their respective chapters. Each student delegate or alternate shall have full privilege of the floor of the House of Delegates with the right to vote.

Section 20. REPRESENTATION:

Each component society shall be entitled to one (1) delegate without regard to the number of its members. The remaining number of delegates shall be allocated to component societies proportionally based upon their active, life and retired members.

For the purpose of this section, the number of active, life and retired members of each component society shall be determined as of the last day of the calendar year preceding an annual session.

Section 30. QUALIFICATIONS:

- A. Each member of the House of Delegates shall have been a fully privileged member in good standing of the American Dental Association, of this Association and a fully privileged member in good standing of the component society from which he was elected. Should the status of any member of the House change with regard to the preceding qualifications during his term of office, that office shall be declared vacant, and the president of the component society shall fill the vacancy by appointing a member of his society to serve as a member of the House of Delegates until a successor can be elected. If a delegate is absent from a specific meeting due to an emergency and no alternate delegate is available, the president of that component society may submit the name of a substitute delegate to the Committee on Credentials and Rules and Order which will report the substitution request to the House of Delegates which must approve certification at the beginning of that specific meeting.
- B. Each student delegate and his alternate must have completed two academic years and be able to serve one full term and must be a member of the American Student Dental Association.

Section 40. TERM OF OFFICE:

- A. The term of office of each member of the House of Delegates shall be determined by his component society.
- B. The term of office of each student delegate and his alternate shall be one year, and he shall be elected from the junior class and shall serve as delegate-at-large.

Section 50. CERTIFICATION OF DELEGATES AND ALTERNATE DELEGATES.

The secretary of each component society shall file with the Secretary of this Association by March 1st of each year, the names of delegates and alternate delegates designated by his society. The Executive Director of this Association shall provide each delegate and alternate delegate with credentials which shall be presented to the Committee on Credentials and Rules and Order of the House of Delegates. In the event of a contest over the credentials of any delegate or alternate delegate, or in the event that a component society president requests certification for a substitute delegate, the Committee on Credentials and Rules and Order shall hold a hearing and report its findings and recommendations to the House of Delegates for final action. The dean of each dental college shall certify the elected student delegate and his alternate from his respective college to the Executive Director of the Tennessee Dental Association no later than March 1, of the current year.

Section 60. POWERS:

- A. The House of Delegates shall be the supreme authoritative body of this Association.
- B. It shall possess the legislative powers.
- C. It shall determine the policies which shall govern this Association in all its activities.
- D. It shall have the power to rescind interim policy decisions of the Board of Trustees.
- E. It shall have the power to enact, amend and repeal the Constitution and Bylaws of this Association.
- F. It shall have the power to adopt and amend the Principles of Ethics of this Association.
- G. It shall have the power to grant, amend, suspend or revoke charters of component societies. It shall also have the power by a two-third (2/3) majority to suspend the representation of a component society in the House of Delegates upon a determination by the House that the bylaws of the component society violate the Constitution or Bylaws of this Association providing, however, that suspension shall not be in effect until the House of Delegates has voted that the component society is in violation and has one year after notification of the specific violation in which to correct its constitution and/or bylaws.
- H. It shall have the power to create special committees of this Association.
- I. It shall have the power to approve all memorials, resolutions or opinions issued in the name of the Tennessee Dental Association.
- J. It shall have the power to establish rules and regulations consistent with the Constitution and Bylaws to govern its organization procedures and conduct.
- K. It shall have the power to recommend to the Governor of the State of Tennessee in the name of the Association, qualified members of this Association to serve as members of the Tennessee Board of Dentistry.

- L. It shall have to power to grant or deny credentials for any delegate, alternate delegate, or substitute delegate.

Section 70. DUTIES:

It shall be the duty of the House of Delegates:

- A. To elect the elective officers.
- B. To elect the delegates and alternate delegates to the American Dental Association.
- C. To receive and act upon reports of committees of the House.

Section 80. TRANSFER OF POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES:

The powers and duties of the House of Delegates, except the power to amend, enact and repeal the Constitution and Bylaws, and the duty of electing the officers may be transferred to the Board of Trustees of this Association in time of extraordinary emergency. The existence of a time of extraordinary emergency shall be determined by mail vote of a majority of the members of the last House of Delegates, representing at least sixty (60) percent of the component societies of this Association.

Section 90. ANNUAL SESSION:

The House of Delegates shall convene annually.

Section 100. SPECIAL SESSIONS:

- A. A special session of the House of Delegates may be called by one of the following ways:
  - 1. The President on three-fourths (3/4) affirmative vote of the members of the Board of Trustees present and voting at a regular or special session.
  - 2. The Speaker on written request of delegates representing at least one-half (1/2) the component societies and not less than one-third (1/3) the number of officially certified delegates of the last House of Delegates.
- B. The time and place of a special session shall be determined by the President, provided the time selected shall be not more than forty-five (45) days after the request was received. The business of the special session of the House shall be limited to that stated in the official call except by unanimous consent.

Section 110. OFFICIAL CALL:

- A. Annual Session: Official notice of the annual session of the House shall be sent to each delegate and alternate delegate by the Secretary of this Association at least thirty (30) days prior to said session. The official notice shall state the date and place of said session, the dates and hours of the business meetings, in addition to other pertinent information.
- B. Special Session: The Secretary of the Association shall send an official notice of the time and place of each special session and a statement of the business to be considered to every officially certified delegate, alternate delegate and ex-officio member of the last House not less than fifteen (15) days before the opening of such session.

Section 120. QUORUM:

A majority of the voting members of the House of Delegates, representing at least sixty (60) percent of the component societies shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting.

Section 130. ORDER OF BUSINESS:

The order of business of the House of Delegates shall be that order of business adopted by the House of Delegates.

Section 140. OFFICERS:

Speaker and Secretary:

The officers of the House shall be the Speaker of the House of Delegates and the Secretary of the House of Delegates. The Speaker of the House shall be elected by the delegates from the active membership of the Association at each annual session of the House. The Secretary of this Association shall serve as Secretary of the House of Delegates. In the absence of the Speaker, the Board of Trustees shall appoint a Speaker Pro Tem. In the absence of the Secretary, the President shall appoint a Secretary Pro Tem.

Section 150. DUTIES:

A. Speaker:

The Speaker shall preside at all meetings of the House of Delegates, shall determine the order of business for all meetings subject to the approval of the House of Delegates, appoint tellers to assist him in determining the result of any action taken by vote; appoint members of Special Committees as provided in Section 170.D of this Chapter of the Bylaws and perform such other duties as custom and parliamentary usage require. The decision of the Speaker shall be final unless an appeal from such decision is made by a member of the House, in which case final decision shall be made by a majority vote of those delegates present and voting.

B. Secretary:

The Secretary of the House shall serve as the recording officer of the House and the custodian of its records. He shall submit a summary of the proceedings of the House for publication in an Association publication available to all members as the official transactions of the House of Delegates.

Section 160. RULES OF ORDER:

A. Standing Rules and Reports:

1. Reports:

All reports of elective officers, Board of Trustees, and Committees, except supplemental reports, shall be sent to each delegate and alternate delegate at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the opening of the annual session. All supplemental reports shall be distributed to each delegate before such report is considered by the House of Delegates, except oral reports may be heard upon consent of the Delegates of the House.

2. Appropriation of Funds:

Any resolution proposing an appropriation of funds shall be referred to the Board of Trustees at least sixty (60) days prior to the House meeting for a report on the availability of funds for the purpose specified.

B. Additional Rules:

The rules contained in the current edition of Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure shall govern the deliberations of the House of Delegates in all cases in which they are applicable and not in conflict with the standing rules or these Bylaws.

Section 170. COMMITTEES OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES:

The President of the Association shall appoint the following committees at least sixty (60) days in advance of each session:

A. Committee on Constitution and Bylaws:

1. Composition:

The committee shall consist of the members of the Committee on Constitution and Bylaws of this Association to be appointed by the President as provided for in the TDA Committee Handbook.

It shall be the duty of the committee:

- (a) to draft or approve the proposed text of all amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws prior to their submission to the House of Delegates for action;
- (b) to consider other matters referred to it, to hold hearings thereon and to report its findings and recommendations to the House of Delegates.

B. Committee on Credentials and Rules and Order:

1. Composition:

The Committee on Credentials and Rules and Order shall consist of five (5) officially certified delegates.

2. Duties:

It shall be the duty of the Committee on Credentials and Rules and Order to:

- (a) determine and record at each meeting of the House the roll of the delegates and report such to the Speaker at the beginning of each meeting;
- (b) to conduct a hearing on any contest regarding the certification of a delegate or alternate delegate and to report its recommendation to the House of Delegates;
- (c) provide the facilities for the elections of the elective officers;
- (d) to conduct the elections of the elective officers of this Association.
- (e) to prepare a report in consultation with the Speaker and Secretary of the House of Delegates, on matters relating to the order of business and special rules of order;
- (f) to consider all matters referred to and to report its recommendations to the House of Delegates.

- (g) to conduct hearings on requests for credentials for substitute delegates submitted by component society presidents and to report its recommendations to the House of Delegates for further action.

C. Reference Committee:

1. Composition:

A Reference Committee shall consist of five (5) fully privileged members of this Association. The chair and at least one other member shall be officially certified delegates.

2. Duties:

It shall be the duty of a Reference Committee to consider reports referred to it, to conduct open hearings and to report its recommendations to the House of Delegates.

D. Special Committees:

The Speaker, with the consent of the House of Delegates, may appoint special committees to perform duties not otherwise assigned by these Bylaws. The term of all members of special committees shall expire at the annual session following their appointment or when their assigned duties have been completed.

CHAPTER IV • Board of Trustees

Section 10. COMPOSITION:

The Board of Trustees shall consist of one (1) Trustee from each of the nine (9) component societies. Such nine (9) Trustees, the President, the President-Elect, the Immediate Past President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the three (3) Vice Presidents, and the Chair of the New Dentist Committee shall constitute the voting membership of the Board. The President shall vote only in case of a tie. The Editor of the Journal of the Association, if applicable, and the Speaker of the House of Delegates shall be members ex-officio of the Board of Trustees, without voting power. The Chair of the New Dentist Committee shall be limited to one three-year term on the Board of Trustees.

Section 20. QUALIFICATIONS:

A Trustee shall be an active or life member, in good standing of this Association for at least five (5) years and a fully privileged member of the component society from which he was elected, for at least three (3) years. Should the status of any Trustee change in regard to the preceding qualifications during his term of office, that office shall be declared vacant by the President of this Association and the President of the component society shall fill the vacancy by appointing a member of his society to serve as a member of the Board until a successor can be elected.

Section 30. TERM OF OFFICE:

The term of office of a Trustee shall be three (3) years. The consecutive tenure of a Trustee shall be limited to two (2) terms of three (3) years each. If a member is elected to fill an unexpired term, this will not limit him from serving two (2) consecutive terms of three (3) years each.

Section 40. NOMINATION AND ELECTION:

A Trustee shall be elected by the component society he is to represent in a manner prescribed by such component society. The secretary of such component society shall report the election of such Trustee to the Secretary of this Association as prescribed in Chapter II, Section 50 of these Bylaws.

Section 50. VACANCY:

In the event of a vacancy in the office of Trustee, that Trustee's component society shall elect a Trustee to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Section 60. POWERS:

- A. The Board of Trustees shall be the administrative agency of the Association, vested with full power to conduct all business of the Association subject to the laws of the State of Tennessee, the Articles of Incorporation, the Constitution and Bylaws and the mandates of the House of Delegates.
- B. It shall have the power to establish rules and regulations consistent with these Bylaws to govern its organization and conduct procedures.
- C. It shall have the power to establish ad interim policies when the House of Delegates is not in session and when such policies are essential to the management of the Association, provided, however, that all such policies must be presented for review at the next session of the House of Delegates.
- D. It shall have the power to create and dissolve committees as pertains to the business of the Association.
- E. It shall have the power to direct the President to call a special session of the House of Delegates, as provided in Chapter III, Section 100 of these Bylaws.
- F. It shall have the power to elect candidates for life membership and student members of this Association.
- G. It shall have full power to cause to be published in, or to be omitted from, any official publication of this Association, any article, in whole or in part, except the editorials written or approved by the Editor of the Journal of this Association.
- H. It shall have the power to elect candidates recommended by the Committee on State Agencies and Awards for Fellowship Awards and others who are to be honored by this Association.
- I. It shall have the power to nominate candidates for Honorary and Associate Membership.
- J. It shall have the power to name any committee of the Board to assist them in carrying out their duties.
- K. It shall have the power to remove an appointed official or committee member of this Association for cause in accordance with procedures established by the Board of Trustees in its rules, provided such rules do not conflict with these Bylaws nor the laws of the State of Tennessee.

Section 70. DUTIES:

It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees:

- A. To provide for the maintenance and supervision of the Executive Office and of other property owned or operated by this Association.
- B. To appoint a qualified member of this Association to the office of Editor, if applicable.
- C. To appoint a qualified person to the position of Executive Director and to establish his or her salary.
- D. To determine the date and place for convening each annual scientific and business session.
- E. To approve the appointive members of the committees of this Association.
- F. To approve the chairs of the committees of this Association.
- G. To cause to be bonded by a surety company all officers and employees of this Association entrusted with Association funds.
- H. To cause all accounts of the Association to be audited by a certified public accountant at least once yearly.
- I. To provide for the publication and distribution of all official publications of the Association.
- J. To establish the annual budget of the Association.
- K. To submit an annual report to the House of Delegates of its activities.
- L. To perform such other duties as may be prescribed by these Bylaws.
- M. To carry out any additional functions delegated to it by the House of Delegates.
- N. To be responsible for the activities of the Executive Director and the Executive Office.
- O. To cause to be presented to each retiring President a lapel pin known as "The Past President's Pin," along with an appropriate plaque.
- P. To cause to be presented to each retiring Speaker of the House of Delegates an appropriate pin and plaque.
- Q. To maintain continuous study as to duties, usefulness, scope, function and performance of existing or proposed committees.
- R. In the absence of the Speaker of the House of Delegates, to appoint a Speaker Pro Tem.
- S. To appoint a committee, composed of component society peer review chairs, to:
  - 1. Develop and maintain peer review mechanisms in all component societies;
  - 2. Coordinate peer review activities statewide; and
  - 3. Act as the appellate body for peer review cases contested at the component society level.

Section 80. SESSIONS:

- A. Regular Sessions:

There shall be at least two (2) regular sessions of the Board of Trustees each year:

  - 1. Immediately before and/or during each annual session of the House of Delegates.
  - 2. Any time at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.
- B. Special Sessions:

Special sessions of the Board of Trustees may be called at any time by the President or upon the request of a majority of the voting members of the Board.

C. Notification:

1. Written notice shall be given by the Secretary of the Association of the time and place of each regular session at least fifteen (15) days prior to the session:
2. Written notice shall be given by the Secretary of the Association of the time and place of each special session at least ten (10) days prior to the session.
3. "Written notice" as stated in this section may also be given by electronic mail provided all Board members have consented, in writing, to be notified by electronic mail.

Section 90. QUORUM:

A majority of the voting members of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of conducting business.

Section 100. OFFICERS:

A. Chair and Secretary:

The officers of the Board of Trustees shall be a Chair and a Secretary. The President of this Association shall be the Chair and the Secretary of this Association shall be the Secretary.

In the absence of the President, the office of Chair shall be filled by the President-Elect, or a voting member of the Board shall be elected chair Pro Tem. In the absence of the Secretary, the Chair shall appoint a Secretary Pro Tem.

B. Duties:

1. Chair:
The Chair shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Trustees; he shall cast the deciding vote in case of a tie.
2. Secretary:
The Secretary shall serve as the recording officer of the Board of Trustees and shall be custodian of all records. He shall cause a factual record of the proceedings to be kept as the official transactions of the Board. He shall prepare a factual report of all proceedings of the Board and cause them to be published.

Section 110. VOTE WITHOUT A MEETING:

Action by the Board of Trustees may be taken without a meeting as permitted by and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Tennessee Nonprofit Corporation Act in force at such time. Such action pursuant to this Section 110 shall have the same effect as a vote at a duly held meeting of the Board of Trustees.

CHAPTER V • Right to Rescind Actions of the Board of Trustees

The House of Delegates may, by a majority of those present and voting at any regular or special session of the assembly, rescind any action of the Board of Trustees, except as may be otherwise provided by the laws of the State of Tennessee or does not conflict with the Constitution and Bylaws of this Association.

CHAPTER VI • Scientific Sessions

Section 10. PURPOSE:

The scientific session of this Association is established to foster and to provide a forum for the presentation and discussion of subjects pertaining to the art and science of dentistry.

Section 20. SESSIONS:

The scientific session of this Association shall be held annually at a time and place selected by the Board of Trustees pursuant to these Bylaws.

Section 30. MANAGEMENT:

The Board of Trustees shall have full charge of all details relating to the annual scientific session.

Section 40. ADMISSIONS:

Admission to meetings of the scientific sessions shall be limited to members of this Association who are in good standing and to others admitted in accordance with rules and regulations established by the Board of Trustees.

CHAPTER VII • Elective Officers

Section 10. NUMBER AND TITLES:

The elective officers of this Association shall be eight (8) in number:

1. President
2. President-Elect
3. Secretary

Student Members shall pay, upon completion of such program, a percentage of dues consistent with the percentage of full active dues stated in the most recent edition of the ADA Governance & Organizational Manual.
- D. Honorary, Associate and Affiliate Members: Honorary, associate and affiliate members shall be exempt from the payment of dues.
  - E. Retired Members: The annual dues for retired members shall be a percentage of dues consistent with the percentage of full active dues stated in the most recent edition of the ADA Governance & Organizational Manual.
  - F. Members Elected After July 1: Those members elected to active membership in this Association for the first time or reinstated after an entire year lapse in membership and who are elected after July 1 shall pay a dues amount consistent with the percentage of the current year's dues stated in the most recent edition of the ADA Governance & Organizational Manual.
  - G. Full-time Faculty Members: The annual dues of all dentist faculty members, classified as 80 percent (80%) or above by employing educational institutions offering American Dental Association accredited programs in Tennessee, shall be one-half TDA membership dues.
  - H. Full-time Public Health Dentists: All full time Public Health Dentists, as certified annually by Tennessee's Director of Oral Health Services, be charged one-half TDA membership dues to maintain active membership.
  - I. Loss of Membership and Reinstatement:
    1. An active, active life, retired or student member whose dues have not been paid by the published deadline of the current year shall cease to be a member of this Association.
    2. Reinstatement of active, life, retired, or student membership may be secured by a former member upon re-application to the component society and payment to the TDA of current year dues.
  - J. Dues of Members Who Suffer Financial Hardship: An active member who has suffered a significant financial hardship that prohibits them from payment of the full dues and/or any special assessment may be excused from the payment of fifty percent (50%) or all of the current year's ADA, TDA and component society dues and /or any special assessment as determined by their constituent and component dental societies. The component society shall certify the reason for the waiver, and forward to the TDA Board of Trustees for consideration and action. The ADA, the TDA and the component society shall provide the same proportionate reduction in any approved waivers. Additionally, a member of this association, while receiving assistance from the Relief Fund of this Association or from the Relief Fund of the American Dental Association, shall be exempt from the payment of dues during the period of such assistance.
  - K. Active members on military duty with the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps or Public Health Service shall be exempt from the payment of dues for a period not to exceed three years.

Section 20. SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS:

The House of Delegates may upon recommendation of the Board of Trustees and by a two-third (2/3) affirmative vote order an assessment for each active member. The resolution of the House of Delegates enacting such an assessment shall contain a statement of the purpose of the assessment and the categories of membership to be assessed. The funds so obtained from the special assessment may be used only for the purpose for which the assessment is made. A resolution proposing a special assessment cannot be acted upon at the annual session of the House of Delegates at which it is introduced, except by a two-third (2/3) affirmative vote for approval.

Section 30. FISCAL YEAR:

The fiscal year of this Association shall commence on July 1 and terminate on June 30 of the year following.

Section 40. GENERAL FUND:

The general operating fund shall consist of all monies received other than those specifically allocated to other funds and purposes by these Bylaws. This fund shall be used for defraying all expenses incurred by this Association not otherwise provided for in these Bylaws.

Section 50. RELIEF FUND:

This Association shall maintain a relief fund, fully detached from any other fund of this Association, for the purpose of granting aid to dentists, their dependents and survivors. This fund shall be derived from cash, securities and other property transferred or appropriated to it by the Board of Trustees, from contributions of the membership or friends, from bequests and from the earnings thereon.

The trustees of this fund shall be defined in the Declaration of Trust of the TDA Relief Fund.

CHAPTER X • Delegates to the American Dental Association

Section 10. NUMBER:

The number of delegates and alternates to the House of Delegates of the American Dental Association shall be determined in accordance with Chapter III, Section 30, of the Bylaws of the American Dental Association.

Section 20. ELECTION OF DELEGATES:

The House of Delegates of this Association shall nominate and elect from the fully privileged membership, delegates and alternate delegates to the House of Delegates of the American Dental Association. The President shall automatically be designated as a delegate, and the President-Elect shall be an alternate for the President.

Voting shall be by ballot, except that when there is only one candidate for any office, such candidate may be declared elected by the Speaker.

The delegates and their alternates shall be equally divided among each Grand Division of the State provided there is a sufficient number to do so. Any remaining delegates and alternates allowed shall be elected from the membership-at-large.

Section 30. TERM OF OFFICE:

The tenure of the delegates and alternate delegates to the American Dental Association shall be limited to two (2) consecutive terms of three (3) years each, but, after not holding office for at least one (1) year, shall be eligible to be elected for a single additional term of three (3) years.

Section 40. LOSS OF DELEGATE POSITION:

If the American Dental Association must remove one delegate and alternate position and thereby one of the present delegates and alternates must retire, then the delegate-at-large and his alternate with the least amount of continuous service shall be removed. If there are no at-large delegates, then the delegate and his alternate with the least time of continuous service shall be removed. If there should be more than one (1) delegate having the same amount of service and that service is lesser than that of other delegates, the House of Delegates of this Association shall determine which delegate and his alternate shall be removed from his position.

CHAPTER XI • Special and Standing Committees

Section 10. SPECIAL COMMITTEES:

Special committees of this Association may be created by the House of Delegates as provided in Chapter III, Section 60 and Chapter III, Section 170 of these Bylaws or by the Board of Trustees as provided in Chapter IV, Section 60, for the purpose of performing duties not otherwise assigned by these Bylaws. Such special committee shall serve until their assigned duties have been completed.

Section 20. STANDING COMMITTEES:

Standing committees of this Association may be created by the Board for the purpose of performing duties of a continuing nature. The composition, term and duties of such committees shall be set forth in the Committee Handbook.

Section 30. PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR:

Chairs and members of the special or standing committees who are not members of the House of Delegates shall have the right to participate in the debate on their respective reports, if requested to do so by the Speaker or a delegate, or by the Chair of the Board of Trustees or a trustee, but shall not have the right to vote.

CHAPTER XII • Publications

Section 10. OFFICIAL JOURNAL:

- A. Title: This Association may publish, or cause to be published, an official journal under the title of “The Journal of the Tennessee Dental Association,” hereinafter referred to as “the Journal.”
- B. Object: The object of the Journal shall be to report, chronicle and evaluate activities of scientific and professional interest to the members of the dental profession.
- C. Frequency of Issue and Subscription Rate: The frequency of issue and the subscription rate of the Journal shall be determined by the Board of Trustees.
- D. Other Publications: The Association may publish or cause to be published other journals, newsletters or bulletins in the field of dentistry under the direction and regulations of the Board of Trustees.
- E. Official Transactions: Official transactions of the House of Delegates shall be published in an Association publication available to all members under the direction of the Secretary.

CHAPTER XIII • Miscellaneous

Section 10. INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS, HOUSE OF DELEGATES AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES:

The Association shall indemnify and hold harmless each delegate, trustee, officer and each member of the committees now or hereafter serving the Association from and against any and all claims and liabilities to which he may be or become subject by reason of his now or hereafter being or having heretofore been a delegate, trustee, officer and/or member of a committee of the Association and/or by reason of his alleged acts or omissions as a delegate, trustee, officer and/or member of a committee as aforesaid and shall reimburse each delegate, trustee, officer and/or member of a committee of the Association for all legal and other expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with defending against any such claims or liabilities, provided, however, that no delegate, trustee, officer and/or member of a committee shall be indemnified against or be reimbursed for any expenses incurred in defending against any claim or liability arising out of his own negligence or willful misconduct. The foregoing rights of delegates, trustees, officers and/or members of committees shall not be exclusive of other rights to which they may be entitled lawfully.

Section 20. CONTRACTS:

The Board of Trustees may authorize any officer or officers to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any document or instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Tennessee

Dental Association and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 30. CONFIDENTIALITY OF MINUTES:

Minutes or portions of minutes may be identified as confidential and such minutes will be available only to members of the Board, committee members, secretaries or executive director having administrative responsibility for such boards, committees and officers and trustees of this Association and other personnel authorized by the Board of Trustees.

CHAPTER XIV • Amendments

Section 10. AMENDMENTS:

These Bylaws may be amended at any session of the House of Delegates by a two-third (2/3) affirmative vote of the members present and voting with the exception of amendments related to member dues which shall require a three-fourth (3/4) affirmative vote of the members present and voting, provided that the proposed amendments have been submitted in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the meeting of the House of Delegates.

Section 20. AMENDMENT RELATING TO DUES:

An amendment of the Bylaws effecting a change in the dues of members may be adopted if the proposed amendment has been submitted in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to the House of Delegates session at which it is to be considered. In addition, notice of such a resolution shall be sent to each component society, delegate and alternate delegate not less than thirty (30) days before such session and shall be announced to the general membership in an official publication of the Association at least thirty (30) days in advance of the annual session.

CHAPTER XV • Quorum

Section 10. QUORUM:

A quorum for conducting business at any meeting of representatives of this Association shall be a majority of the voting members except for the House of Delegates which is provided for in Chapter III of these Bylaws.

CHAPTER XVI • Procedures

Section 10. RULES OF ORDER:

The current edition of Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure, when not in conflict with the Constitution of this Association or with these Bylaws, shall govern the procedures, deliberations and elections of the House of Delegates, the Board of Trustees, the committees and other bodies of this Association.

CHAPTER XVII • Gender

Section 10. DEFINITION:

Whenever the masculine gender is used in the Bylaws of this Association, the same shall also signify the feminine gender and thus shall imply either his or her.
